

Find your thing

Made possible with

Heritage Fund

Something that grabs your attention

Prompts

- You can choose any thing for any reason no matter how random...
- It could be what it's made from or what it's for
- It could just be something you've never seen before, something that's super familiar to you or remind you of something in life (a film, a game, a tv show)

Response

What is the object? (If you can't find the object name just describe it as best you can!)

Which gallery is it in? If you can't find the gallery name just describe where it is in the museum

What attracted you to this object?

Why did you find it striking or beautiful?

What is your favourite part of it?

How does it make you feel?

Something that you feel connected to

Prompts

- Is it connected to you through your heritage or culture?
- Does it reflect one of your passions?
- Does it remind you of a memory or your home and local area?

Response

What is the object? (If you can't find the object name just describe it as best you can!)

Which gallery is it in? If you can't find the gallery name just describe where it is in the museum

How does the object relate to you? Does it connect to your heritage or culture?

Does this reflect one of your passions? What passion or interest, and how does this object reflect it?

If you were describing it to a friend/family member, how would you 'sell' it?

How does it make you feel and why?

Does this object evoke a particular memory?

Something you find funny/humorous

Prompts

- Again, you can choose any thing for any random reason!
- Just needs to make you smile – might not be funny for everyone

Response

What is the object and where did you find it in the museum (If you can't find the object just describe it as best you can!)

What did you think was funny about it?

Would does it remind you of?

How would you describe it to a friend?

If you could turn it into a meme, what would it be?
