

Lancashire Infantry Museum
Fulwood Barracks, Fulwood, Preston

Contact details: 01772 260584
enquiries@lancashireinfantrymuseum.org.uk

Website: <https://www.lancashireinfantrymuseum.org.uk>

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

Museum	Lancashire Infantry Museum
Accession Number	413
Categories	Arms and armour
Object name	Gauntlet sword
Description	Cavalry gauntlet sword (pata) of Maratha origin, further provenance unconfirmed
Physical description	Flexible blade affixed by a languet to a hilt in the form of a half-gauntlet. The interior of the gauntlet has a floating metal cross-bar that is gripped by the wearer. The cuff of the gauntlet features decorative brass mounts. The interior padding has perished.
Names associated
Other associations

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

Museum	Lancashire Infantry Museum
Accession Number	414
Categories	Arms and armour
Object name	Knife
Description	Knife of Afghan origin, further provenance unconfirmed
Physical description	Both the steel blade and wooden hilt are partly damaged. The blade has what may be a maker's mark stamped in the centre.
Names associated
Other associations	Afghanistan

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Lancashire Infantry Museum
- Accession Number 415
- Categories Arms and armour
- Object name Firearm
- Description Rifle (jezail) of Afghan origin, further provenance unconfirmed
- Physical description Locally manufactured muzzle-loading percussion long-arm with curved stock and decorative metal-work at the forestock.
- Names associated
- Other associations Afghanistan

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Lancashire Infantry Museum
- Accession Number 2
- Categories Sculpture
- Object name Carving
- Description Carving of West African origin, described as being 'taken' by the Niger Protectorate Force on the Cross River Expedition, September 1895, Nigeria, West Africa
- Physical description Wooden carving of an animal (possibly a dog) with an open mouth, sharp teeth, pointed ears, and tail. The body of the animal curves at the centre and is decorated with raised square ridges. The carving has been mounted on a black wooden plinth with a silver plaque at the front inscribed: 'West African Ju-Ju / Taken by the Niger Protectorate Force / on the Cross River Expedition / September 1895'.
- Names associated Niger Coast Protectorate
- Other associations Nigeria, West Africa, AFRICA

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Lancashire Infantry Museum
- Accession Number 501
- Categories Arms and armour
- Object name Sword
- Description Sword described as being 'presented' to Captain George Forster Sadleir, 47th Regiment, by Ibrahim Pasha, Commander of the Egyptian Army, 1819-20, Egypt
- Physical description Sword with curved blade, the silver hilt featuring a tiger-head pommel and cross-guard decorated with chased floral motifs. The silver scabbard is similarly decorated.
- Names associated Sadleir, Captain George Forster
47th Regiment of Foot
Pasha, Ibrahim
- Other associations Egypt

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

Museum	Lancashire Infantry Museum
Accession Number	422
Categories	Vessels
Object name	Pot
Description	Silver pot of Indian origin, described as being 'taken from Lucknow' by an unidentified individual during the Indian Mutiny/Uprising, 1857-8, India
Physical description	Small silver pot with a band of brass or gold, which has been chased and punched with decorative patterns.
Names associated
Other associations	INDIA Indian Mutiny / Uprising

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Lancashire Infantry Museum
- Accession Number 421
- Categories Arms and armour
- Object name Firearm
- Description Adams revolver carried in action by Lieutenant D. Marsh, 82nd Regiment during the Indian Mutiny/Uprising. Described as being 'stolen' from Marsh during the conflict and later 'recovered' from an enemy camp in Oude (now Awadh) in 1858 or 1861, India
- Physical description Adams double-action percussion revolver (1851 pattern). The grip panel has a silver plaque that is inscribed: 'Crimea India Lucknow Cawnpore ETC. / Stolen by Dacoits in Camp Oude January 1859 / Recovered 1861 having been found on the person / of the Moulire [Maulavi of Fyzabad, Ahmadullah Shah] of Oude the Great Rebel Leader / when beheaded by the friendly Rajah of / Powanne [Jagannath Singh, Rajah of Powayan]. The cartridge then & now in / the pistol being those in it when stolen'. There is uncertainty with regard to when the revolver was recovered, as the Maulavi of Fyzabad died in 1858.
- Names associated Marsh, Lieutenant D.
82nd Regiment of Foot
Shah, Ahmadullah
Singh, Raja Jagannath
- Other associations INDIA
Indian Mutiny / Uprising

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

Museum	Lancashire Infantry Museum
Accession Number	403
Categories	Arms and armour
Object name	Shield
Description	Shield of Maratha origin, described as being 'taken' by the 47th Regiment of Foot during the Third Anglo-Maratha War, 1817-18, India
Physical description	Circular shield made of leather featuring circular raised bosses made of brass.
Names associated	47th Regiment of Foot
Other associations	INDIA Third Anglo-Maratha War

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

Museum	Lancashire Infantry Museum
Accession Number	1
Categories	Musical instruments
Object name	Gong
Description	Brass gong of Indian origin, described as being 'taken' by the 30th Regiment of Foot at the capture of the Fortress of Asseerghur (Asirgarh), 17th March 1819, during the Third Anglo-Maratha War, 1817-18, India. Later set within a dark brown wooden frame and inscribed with battle honours
Physical description	Circular brass gong suspended in the centre of a dark brown circular wooden frame. The top of the frame bears the regiment's battle honour 'Egypt' in the form of a sphinx in brass. The sides and bottom of the frame bear inscriptions in brass letters: 'This gong was taken by the XXX Regt at the storming & capture of the Fortress of Asseerghur on the 17th March MDCCCXIX' and 'XXX / Cambridgeshire'. The gong is also inscribed 'Asseerghur' at the top and 'March 17 1819' at the bottom.
Names associated	30th Regiment of Foot
Other associations	INDIA Third Anglo-Maratha War

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

Museum	Lancashire Infantry Museum
Accession Number	404
Categories	Arms and armour
Object name	Sword
Description	Sword (talwar) of Indian origin, possibly taken during the Third Anglo-Maratha War, 1817-18, India
Physical description	Sword with curved blade, hilt with curved knuckle-guard and disc-pommel.
Names associated
Other associations	INDIA Third Anglo-Maratha War

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

Museum	Lancashire Infantry Museum
Accession Number	420
Categories	Regalia
Object name	Staff
Description	Silver staff or mace of Indian origin, described as being 'captured at Lucknow' by the 82nd Regiment at the advance on Martiniere College during the Indian Mutiny/Uprising, 1857-8, India
Physical description	Long silver staff chased with floral motifs. It has been inscribed: '82 nd Regiment 14 November 1857 captured at Lucknow'.
Names associated	82nd Regiment of Foot
Other associations	INDIA Indian Mutiny / Uprising

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

Museum	Lancashire Infantry Museum
Accession Number	416
Categories	Musical instruments
Object name	Drum
Description	Drum of Maratha origin, described as being 'captured' by the 40th Regiment during the Battle of Maharajpore, Gwalior Campaign, 1843, India
Physical description	Drum with copper body, threaded white rope, the top edge painted green and red.
Names associated	40th Regiment of Foot
Other associations	INDIA Gwalior Campaign Battle of Maharajpore

Research image