

Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh
The Barracks, The Watton, Brecon

Contact details: 01874 613310

Website: <https://royalwelsh.org.uk>

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number 1955.141
- Categories Personal ornaments
Currency
- Object name Bracelet
- Description Four bracelets or manillas of Hausa origin, described as being 'taken' by Captain F. M. Gillespie, 24th and Northern Nigeria Regiment, West African Frontier Force, during operations on the Niger, 1897-8, West Africa
- Physical description Four semi-circular bracelets made of iron with incised cross-hatching, linear and circular patterns. May have functioned as a form of currency.
- Names associated Gillespie, Captain Franklin Macaulay
24th Regiment of Foot
Northern Nigeria Regiment, West African Frontier Force
- Other associations Niger Delta, Nigeria, West Africa, AFRICA

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number 1955.3
- Categories Arms and armour
- Object name Knobkerrie
- Description Iron knobkerrie, described as being 'taken' by Captain F. M. Gillespie, 24th and Northern Nigeria Regiment, West African Frontier Force, during operations on the Niger, 1897-8, West Africa
- Physical description Long knobkerrie made of iron with a central raised grip flanked by two panels incised with cross-hatching and linear decorations. The end of the knobkerrie terminates in a pyramid-shaped tip.
- Names associated Gillespie, Captain Franklin Macaulay
24th Regiment of Foot
Northern Nigeria Regiment, West African Frontier Force
- Other associations Niger Delta, Nigeria, West Africa, AFRICA

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number 2001.190
- Categories Arms and armour
- Object name Quoit
- Description Two steel quoits of Sikh origin, taken by an unidentified individual during the Second Anglo-Sikh War, 1848-9, Panjab
- Physical description Two quoits made of steel. One is undecorated and shows evidence of tarnishing, the other is inscribed: 'I I I 4 6', possibly a Sikh service number.
- Names associated
- Other associations Panjab, INDIA
Panjab, PAKISTAN
Second Anglo-Sikh War

Research images

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

Museum	Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
Accession Number	1938.1
Categories	Personal ornaments Ritual and religion
Object name	Necklace
Description	Necklaces of Zulu origin, collected by Lieutenant John David Arthur Thomas Lloyd, 24th Regiment, during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
Physical description	Two necklaces, one made of leather with cowrie shells attached; the other featuring a group of stitched leather pouches or amulets tied together with fibres which may have been worn or used by a ritual specialist.
Names associated	Lloyd, Lieutenant John David Arthur Thomas 24th Regiment of Foot
Other associations	South Africa Anglo-Zulu War

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number A1938.6
- Categories Personal ornaments
- Object name Armlets
- Description Armlets of Zulu origin, collected by Lieutenant John David Arthur Thomas Lloyd, 24th Regiment, during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
- Physical description Three armlets made of copper wire with beads at intervals. One armlet made of iron, undecorated.
- Names associated Lloyd, Lieutenant John David Arthur Thomas
24th Regiment of Foot
- Other associations South Africa
Anglo-Zulu War

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

Museum	Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
Accession Number	1938.1B
Categories	Containers
Object name	Basket
Description	Gourd basket of Zulu origin, collected by Lieutenant John David Arthur Thomas Lloyd, 24th Regiment, during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
Physical description	Round vessel made of dried and hollowed light brown gourd with a circular hole at the top. A sling made of fibre to carry the vessel is laced around the gourd in five bands.
Names associated	Lloyd, Lieutenant John David Arthur Thomas 24th Regiment of Foot
Other associations	South Africa Anglo-Zulu War

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number 1948.48
- Categories Furniture
- Object name Headrest
- Description Wooden headrest of Zulu origin, taken by an unidentified individual during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
- Physical description Headrest carved of dark brown wood, with six columns featuring a raised decorative pattern (amasumpa).
- Names associated
- Other associations South Africa
Anglo-Zulu War

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number 1948.10
- Categories Tableware
- Object name Spoons
- Description Four wooden spoons of Zulu origin, collected by Lieutenant John David Arthur Thomas Lloyd, 24th Regiment, during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
- Physical description Four spoons made of wood with individual decoration on the handle; the first with spirals beginning mid-way down the handle; the second with chevrons near the top of the handle; the third and fourth featuring a raised decorative pattern (amasumpa).
- Names associated Lloyd, Lieutenant John David Arthur Thomas
24th Regiment of Foot
- Other associations South Africa
Anglo-Zulu War

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number 1925.50
- Categories Smoking
Personal ornaments
- Object name Snuff spoon-comb
- Description Bone snuff spoon-comb, taken by an unidentified individual during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
- Physical description Snuff spoon-comb carved of bone, with three long thin prongs at one end, and a thin protrusion at the other culminating in a small deep bowl.
- Names associated
- Other associations South Africa
Anglo-Zulu War

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number P1977.537
- Categories Vessels
- Object name Milk pail
- Description Wooden milk pail of Zulu origin, described as being 'found' at Cetshwayo kaMpande's kraal by Sergeant Major W. Hogan, 24th Regiment during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa. Later presented to J. W. Jones, 3 March 1881
- Physical description Milk pail carved from a deep brown wood, with a tapered base. There is a panel featuring high relief carvings, as well as two large protrusions on both sides of the pail to aid carrying and gripping.
- Names associated kaMpande, Cetshwayo
Hogan, Sergeant Major W.
24th Regiment of Foot
Jones, J.W.
- Other associations South Africa
Anglo-Zulu War

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number B1936.9
- Categories Containers
- Object name Basket
- Description Woven basket of Zulu origin, taken by an unidentified individual during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
- Physical description Round basket made of tightly woven grass, with lid.
- Names associated
- Other associations South Africa
Anglo-Zulu War

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number 1948.22
- Categories Personal equipment
- Object name Bed card
- Description Bed card belonging to Private W. H. Camp who took part in the defence of Rorke's Drift during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa. Described as being 'picked up' on the battlefield of Isandlwana in December 1884 by Private J. Hefferman, 2nd Battalion, South Lancashire Regiment
- Physical description Thin metal plate with hole punched in the top, inscribed: '2 B 24 REGT / 1181 / W. H. CAMP'.
- Names associated Camp, Private W. H.
Hefferman, Private J.
South Lancashire Regiment
- Other associations South Africa
Anglo-Zulu War

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number 1984.78
- Categories Arms and armour
- Object name Shield
- Description Shield of Zulu origin, described as being 'taken' by Major William Dunbar, 24th Regiment, at the Battle of Rorke's Drift, during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
- Physical description Large oval-shaped shield made of light reddish-brown animal hide with a long light brown round-headed pole support. The wood in the very centre of the staff is carved to create a swirl-like pattern grip. On the reverse of the shield is a painted label that reads: 'Taken at the / Attack at Rorke's Drift / 22nd Jany / 1879'.
- Names associated Dunbar, Major William
24th Regiment of Foot
- Other associations South Africa
Anglo-Zulu War
Battle of Rorke's Drift

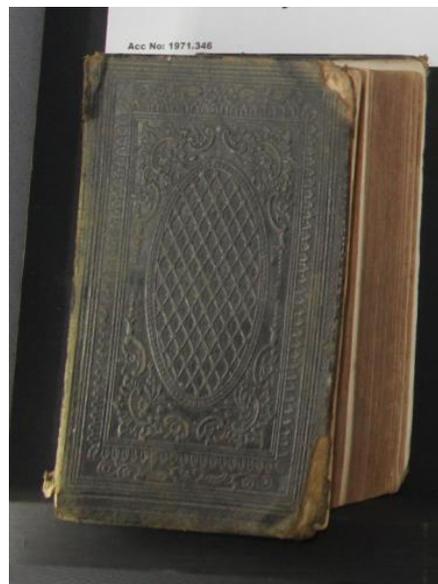

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

Museum	Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
Accession Number	S1950.36
Categories	Regalia
Object name	Staff
Description	Staff of Zulu origin, described as being 'taken' from Sihayo kaXonga's kraal, 12th January 1879, by Lieutenant Henry Germain Mainwaring, 24th Regiment, during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
Physical description	Staff made of wood with semi-circular winged tip, two triangular protrusions in the centre, and two winged protrusions at the base, terminating in a long thin handle with zig-zag carving at the grip. The head of the staff is inscribed: 'Taken at Usirajo's Krall / 2.24' and beneath the carved grip 'In Memory of the / Massacre at Isandhlwana and / Defence of / Rorke's Drift / 22nd Jan 1879 / H.G. Mainwaring / XXIV.'
Names associated	kaXonga, Sihayo Mainwaring, Lieutenant Henry Germain 24th Regiment of Foot
Other associations	South Africa Anglo-Zulu War

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number 1971.346
- Categories Books and manuscripts
- Object name Bible
- Description Bible of British origin, described as being 'picked up' from the battlefield of Isandlwana by Private Alfred Henry Hook, 24th Regiment, who was awarded a VC for his actions at the Battle of Rorke's Drift during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
- Physical description Leather-bound bible, cover decorated with a central oval surrounded by floral patterns.
- Names associated Hook, Private Alfred Henry
24th Regiment of Foot
- Other associations South Africa
Anglo-Zulu War

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number P 185.50
- Categories Books and manuscripts
- Object name Prayer book
- Description Prayer book of British origin, described as being 'found' after the Battle of Isandlwana, fought 22 January 1879 during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
- Physical description Missing cover, with torn and damaged pages.
- Names associated
- Other associations South Africa
Anglo-Zulu War

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number P 185.50
- Categories Sewing
- Object name Pin cushion
- Description Pin cushion described as being 'made out of small bits of cloth from different uniforms' by the sick and wounded after the Battle of Rorke's Drift, fought during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
- Physical description Star-shaped pin cushion made from green and red textile, and decorated with beads of various colours.
- Names associated
- Other associations South Africa
Anglo-Zulu War

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

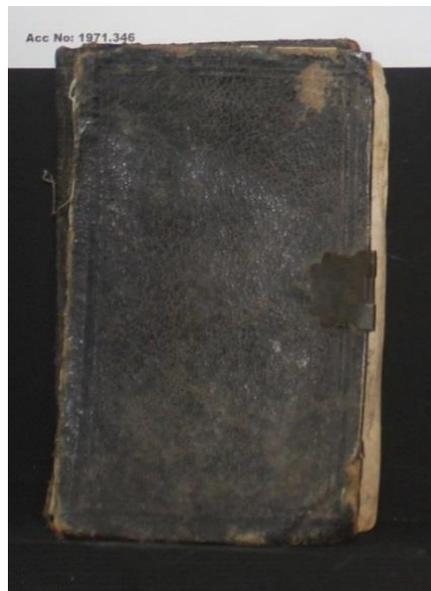

Museum	Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
Accession Number	S1950.35
Categories	Regalia
Object name	Staff
Description	Wooden staff of Zulu origin, described as being 'taken' by Major Gonville Bromhead, 24th Regiment, at the Battle of Rorke's Drift during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa. Later presented to Henry Germain Mainwaring, 24th Regiment
Physical description	Staff carved from dark brown wood with two polished heads at the top and a hand-grip featuring a raised decorative pattern (amasumpa). Above and beneath the hand-grip the staff is inscribed: 'From Major G. Bromhead / XXIV / To / H.G. Mainwaring / XXIV / Taken at the / Attack / on / Rorke's Drift / 22nd Jan / 1879'.
Names associated	Bromhead, Major Gonville Mainwaring, Henry Germain 24th Regiment of Foot
Other associations	South Africa Anglo-Zulu War Battle of Rorke's Drift

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

Museum	Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
Accession Number	1971.346B
Categories	Books and manuscripts
Object name	Bible
Description	Bible belonging to Private W. Skelton, described as being 'found' on the battlefield of Isandlwana, fought 22 January 1879, during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
Physical description	Leather-bound, with metal clasp.
Names associated	Skelton, Private W.
Other associations	South Africa Anglo-Zulu War Battle of Isandlwana

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number 1948.12
- Categories Personal ornaments
- Object name Necklace
- Description Necklace of Zulu origin, collected by Lieutenant John David Arthur Thomas Lloyd, 24th Regiment, during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
- Physical description Necklace comprising two very large polished pieces of amber, with a central decorative piece made of leather with a thin green painted border, and thick light brown leather strap. A central join between the two pieces of amber is made of leather and decorated with raised zig-zag and chevron patterns.
- Names associated Lloyd, Lieutenant John David Arthur Thomas
24th Regiment of Foot
- Other associations South Africa
Anglo-Zulu War

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

Museum	Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
Accession Number	1984.76
Categories	Arms and armour
Object name	Knobkerrie
Description	Wooden knobkerrie of Zulu origin, possibly taken during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
Physical description	Knobkerrie made of wood. The handle is a lighter brown, while the head of the knobkerrie has a darker brown patina. There is some evidence of damage on the head.
Names associated
Other associations	South Africa Anglo-Zulu War

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

Museum	Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
Accession Number	B.1938.15
Categories	Clothing and textiles
Object name	Bag
Description	Beaded bag of Zulu origin, described as being 'picked up' by an unidentified individual after the Battle of Isandlwana, fought 22 January 1879, during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
Physical description	Bag comprising leather body with stitched white glass beads in long rows down the body of the bag, with a row of three black beads running along the centre of the bag.
Names associated
Other associations	South Africa Anglo-Zulu War Battle of Isandlwana

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number 1938.15
- Categories Arms and armour
- Object name Armlet
- Description Two cast brass armlets of Zulu origin, possibly taken during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
- Physical description Both armlets are made of cylindrical-shaped cast brass, with a raised decorative pattern (amasumpa).
- Names associated
- Other associations South Africa
Anglo-Zulu War

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

Museum	Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
Accession Number	1938.2A
Categories	Personal ornaments
Object name	Necklace
Description	Bead necklace of Zulu origin, possibly taken during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
Physical description	Bead necklace, with alternating rows of painted glass beads and smooth amber beads threaded on a cream-coloured string.
Names associated
Other associations	South Africa Anglo-Zulu War

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number 1949.7
- Categories Botanical specimens
- Object name Thorns
- Description Four thorns, described as being 'brought home' by Lieutenant William Whitelock Lloyd, 24th Regiment after the Battle of Isandlwana, fought 22 January 1879, during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
- Physical description Four thorns, two of a white colour, two of a darker cream and brown colour, most likely from an Acacia tree, with sharp pointed tips.
- Names associated Lloyd, Lieutenant William Whitelock
24th Regiment of Foot
- Other associations South Africa
Anglo-Zulu War
Battle of Isandlwana

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number 1984.79
- Categories Arms and armour
- Object name Knife
- Description Knife formed from an assegai of Zulu origin. Described as being 'taken from a Zulu [soldier] believed to have been involved in the killing of Louis Napoleon, the Prince Imperial', on 1 June 1879 during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
- Physical description Knife featuring a wooden handle and short metal blade with a metal scabbard.
- Names associated Napoleon, Prince Imperial
- Other associations South Africa
Anglo-Zulu War
Battle of Ulundi

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number 1948.2
- Categories Smoking
- Object name Smoking pipe
- Description Smoking pipe of Zulu origin, collected by Lieutenant John David Arthur Thomas Lloyd, 24th Regiment, during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
- Physical description Smoking pipe made of stone, with incised decoration.
- Names associated Lloyd, Lieutenant John David Arthur Thomas
24th Regiment of Foot
- Other associations South Africa
Anglo-Zulu War

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number 1948.3
- Categories Personal equipment
- Object name Powder horn
- Description Powder horn of Zulu origin, described as being 'found' by Lieutenant John David Arthur Thomas Lloyd, 24th Regiment, on the battlefield of Isandlwana, fought 22 January 1879, during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
- Physical description Light cream/brown horn, with a dark brown patina at the narrow point. A thin leather strap has been tied to the narrow point of the horn and the wider edge.
- Names associated Lloyd, Lieutenant John David Arthur Thomas
24th Regiment of Foot
- Other associations South Africa
Anglo-Zulu War
Battle of Isandlwana

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number 1938.13
- Categories Personal equipment
- Object name Belt
- Description A belt of British origin converted to a bandolier to hold ammunition, presumably by a Zulu soldier. Described as being 'found' after the Battle of Isandlwana, fought 22 January 1879, during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
- Physical description A leather belt of British origin modified by stitching additional pieces of curved leather to form a bandolier.
- Names associated
- Other associations South Africa
Anglo-Zulu War
Battle of Isandlwana

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

Museum	Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
Accession Number	1973.39
Categories	Arms and armour
Object name	Shield shaft
Description	Broken Zulu shield shaft, described as being 'picked up at Rorke's Drift' by Lieutenant Gonville Bromhead, 24th Regiment, after the battle, during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
Physical description	Light brown shaft made of wood, the second half of the body with spiral incisions.
Names associated	Bromhead, Major Gonville 24th Regiment of Foot
Other associations	South Africa Anglo-Zulu War Battle of Rorke's Drift

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number H1950.26
- Categories Arms and armour
- Object name Spearhead
- Description Two spearheads of Zulu origin, described as being 'picked up at Rorke's Drift' by Lieutenant John David Arthur Thomas Lloyd, 24th Regiment, during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
- Physical description Two spearheads with flat metal blades and central ridges. The smaller spearhead has visible cross-hatching on either side of the central ridge.
- Names associated Lloyd, Lieutenant John David Arthur Thomas
24th Regiment of Foot
- Other associations South Africa
Anglo-Zulu War
Battle of Rorke's Drift

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number 1987.116V
- Categories Arms and armour
- Object name Knobkerrie
- Description Wooden knobkerrie of Zulu origin, belonging to an unidentified military commander, possibly taken during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
- Physical description Knobkerrie made of light brown wood, the head with a darker brown patina, undecorated.
- Names associated
- Other associations South Africa
Anglo-Zulu War

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

Museum	Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
Accession Number	1948.18
Categories	Regalia
Object name	Staff
Description	Wooden staff of Zulu origin with gold metalwork, possibly taken during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
Physical description	Staff made of brown wood with gold metalwork on the top and base with bands of metal at intervening sections on the body of the staff.
Names associated
Other associations	South Africa Anglo-Zulu War

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number 2013.2
- Categories Clothing and textiles
- Object name Skirt
- Description Bead skirt (inkciyo) of Xhosa origin, possibly taken during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
- Physical description Skirt comprising polychromatic beadwork stitched to a thin horizontal leather band. The glass beads are of white, black and turquoise colour, and threaded to form four triangular shapes on the top of the leather band. The two ends of the skirt are attached to the body by lacing a dark blue ribbon attached to both sides.
- Names associated
- Other associations South Africa
Anglo-Zulu War

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number 1948.11B
- Categories Arms and armour
- Object name Dagger
- Description Dagger of Zulu origin, taken by Lieutenant John David Arthur Thomas Lloyd, 24th Regiment, during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
- Physical description Dagger with a round-edged metal blade, the hilt is missing. The leather scabbard is also round and features decorative embossing in two columns on both sides.
- Names associated Lloyd, Lieutenant John David Arthur Thomas
24th Regiment of Foot
- Other associations South Africa
Anglo-Zulu War

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number 1948.11A
- Categories Arms and armour
- Object name Dagger
- Description Dagger of Zulu origin, taken by Lieutenant John David Arthur Thomas Lloyd, 24th Regiment, during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
- Physical description Dagger with bone handle curved at the tip with a single-sided blade with central ridge. The accompanying scabbard is made of a light brown wood, cracked in parts.
- Names associated Lloyd, Lieutenant John David Arthur Thomas
24th Regiment of Foot
- Other associations South Africa
Anglo-Zulu War

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number 1956.82
- Categories Arms and armour
- Object name Shield
- Description Shield of Zulu origin, possibly taken during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
- Physical description Shield, oval-shaped, made of white and dark brown hide with two columns of horizontal slits through which leather loops secure a wooden pole support.
- Names associated
- Other associations South Africa
Anglo-Zulu War

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

Museum	Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
Accession Number	H1950.23
Categories	Regalia
Object name	Headdress
Description	Headdress of Zulu origin, said to have belonged to Cetshwayo kaMpande, taken by an unidentified individual during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
Physical description	Headdress comprising a piece of red textile wrapped on a woven basket base, topped with black feathers and two decorative strings of beadwork terminating in feathers hanging on either side.
Names associated	kaMpande, Cetshwayo
Other associations	South Africa Anglo-Zulu War

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

Museum	Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
Accession Number	1938.2B
Categories	Personal ornaments
Object name	Necklace
Description	Bead necklace of Zulu origin, collected by Lieutenant John David Arthur Thomas Lloyd, 24th Regiment, during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
Physical description	Necklace made of small black glass beads, interspersed with larger red glass beads.
Names associated	Lloyd, Lieutenant John David Arthur Thomas 24th Regiment of Foot
Other associations	South Africa Anglo-Zulu War

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number 2007.31.1.11
- Categories Arms and armour
- Object name Knobkerrie
- Description Wooden knobkerrie of Zulu origin, possibly taken during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
- Physical description Knobkerrie made of a dark brown wood with lighter brown head, cracked in places, with a textured grip in the centre of the pole.
- Names associated
- Other associations South Africa
Anglo-Zulu War

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

Museum	Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
Accession Number	1984.70
Categories	Arms and armour
Object name	Spear
Description	Spear (assegai) of Zulu origin, possibly taken during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
Physical description	Spear with a large metal round-tipped blade with a central ridge and long wooden pole with textured central grip.
Names associated
Other associations	South Africa Anglo-Zulu War

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number 1938.2
- Categories Personal ornaments
- Object name Necklace
- Description Necklaces of Zulu origin, possibly taken during the Anglo-Zulu War, 1879, South Africa
- Physical description Necklaces of varying styles, including beadwork and plaited fibres.
- Names associated
- Other associations South Africa
Anglo-Zulu War

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number 1964.66
- Categories Musical instruments
- Object name Drum
- Description Two drums of Sudanese origin, further provenance unconfirmed
- Physical description Large leather-bound drums.
- Names associated
- Other associations Sudan, North Africa, AFRICA

Research image

Baggage and Belonging Catalogue 2020

- Museum Regimental Museum of the Royal Welsh, Brecon
- Accession Number CARWR:2190
- Categories Arms and armour
- Object name Spearhead
- Description Spearhead of Sudanese origin, further provenance unconfirmed
- Physical description Spearhead with leaf-shaped tip and central ridge. The metal has a rough, corroded texture.
- Names associated
- Other associations Sudan, North Africa, AFRICA

Research image